Happy Mother's Day to all mommies! At every turn I am truly lucky this badass fierce intelligent woman is my Mom! I love you! (And yes, she is seen here knitting a pussy hat. One of many.)

Wow! What a day. I'm too tired to put all of my feelings into words, but my heart is full from the love and solidarity I felt from all of the strong and beautiful women (and men) I was surrounded by today. #WomensMarch #1uWomen

TWU Local 556 Working Women's Committee Participates in Women's March on Washington

Jan 26, 2017 | Public News, Women's Issues, Service, and Education (WISE) Committee

This past Saturday, Members of the TWU Local 556 Working Women's Committee, along with other TWU Local 556 Members volunteered their time and joined nearly 3,000 Union Sisters and Brothers and many more in the Women's March on Washington. Their reasons to march are as varied as our Members and include economic justice, a harassment-free workplace, and non-discrimination for LGBTQ employees. These are worker's issues, Union issues.

"I came to D.C. to march for women's rights. I left reminded that women come in all shapes, sizes, colors and sexual orientations. The number of women (and men) was overwhelming. I learned the true meaning of women's rights are human rights...pretty simple. To be able to share this experience with my daughter and to have her see first-hand what the TWU Working Women's Committee can... See More

My Union does not speak for me. How is this okay. The amount of funds for this event is through the roof! Can you even imagine how costly hotel rooms are? This is outrageous!

Joe Rivera I'm sure AFA was at the march, however they do not pay for pulled trips or hotels. It's all volunteer work. They may have supplied lunch, water, or snacks, but that's about all.
